MAGICAL ... STORIES

FlyStyleTenerife KEEPS GIVING US GOOD NEWS.

This time, we have been awarded the 'Tenerife Sustainable Fashion Quality Seal,' an institutional platform designed to support sustainable textile brands on the island. Its objective is to accredit the textile and fashion sector on the island as a sustainable activity, aligned with the Tenerife Fashion Strategic Plan 2024-2027.

For President Rosa Dávila, this seal once again puts us at the forefront of fashion and the international market. We have been doing this every year with the Tenerife Moda event, and now we seek to consolidate our commitment to creating a sustainable island and exporting it to the rest of the world."

The first Tenerife Sustainable Fashion Day took place on December 10th, marking the beginning of a new path promoted by Cabildo de Tenerife toward a more ethical and environmentally respectful approach to textile production. The event unfolded in the stunning setting of the Antiguo Convento de San Francisco in Garachico, where eleven island designers showcased their sustainable creations —

Garachico

Located on Tenerife's northwestern coast, Garachico is a charming historic town shaped by both beauty and resilience. Once one of the island's most important ports, it was transformed by a volcanic eruption in 1706 and lovingly rebuilt. Today, its cobblestone streets, elegant squares, and traditional Canarian houses invite slow, thoughtful exploration.

Must-see spots include the Castillo de San Miguel overlooking the ocean and the peaceful Church of Santa Ana. Less crowded than southern resorts, Garachico offers a more authentic side of Tenerife—perfect for women travelers seeking culture, history, and a relaxed coastal atmosphere.

Natural Pools

Garachico's famous natural pools, El Caletón, are a stunning gift from nature. Formed by ancient lava flows, these volcanic pools are naturally protected from strong waves while remaining connected to the Atlantic Ocean.

With crystal-clear water, dramatic black rock, and scenic ocean views, they offer a refreshing and restorative swimming experience. Easy access and sunbathing areas make them ideal for a relaxed visit. More than just a swim, the natural pools are a moment of calm and connection—an unforgettable highlight of northern Tenerife.

Carmen dell'Orefice

BEE(S) . . . POWERFUL

Carmen Dell'Orefice, a legendary figure in the fashion world, is the world's oldest working model. With her innate beauty and elegance, she continues to shine at 84 years old and holds a place in the Guinness World Records for the longest modeling career. For 67 years she has walked for top designers, starred in major fashion campaigns, and graced the covers of the most prestigious magazines.

But beyond her extraordinary career, Carmen's story carries a powerful message: there is no age limit to pursue your dreams.

Her own fashion advice reflects that wisdom: "The best thing is to keep what's good and simple. I always did the work that was appropriate for my appearance at a certain age."

A reminder that style evolves, passion endures, and every stage of life holds its own unique beauty.
